BERLIN WILL REFUSE TO MODIFY PLANS FOR SUBMARINE WARFARE

TEUTONS WILL BEGIN SINKING ARMED MERCHANTMEN AFTER MARCH 1 WITH-OUT FURTHER WARNING, SAYS
CONFIDENTIAL REPORTS.

(By International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—It is stated here reliably that confidential advices recently received from Berlin announce Germany will refuse point-blank to modify her new plans for submarine warfare and will begin sinking armed merchantmen without warning after March first.

The state department expects the arrival of official communications to this effect possibly this evening. It is not at all likely that the United States will take any further action until a case develops where American lives are jeopardized or endangered.

If such a lamentable crisis should develop, the administration would necessarily be forced to devise drastic steps to meet it.

SEVENTY NEW TYPE SUBMARINE DESTROYERS TO BE APPROVED FOR U. S. NAVY BY CONGRESS

(By International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—An entirely new type of fighting ship, so far as the United States navy is concerned, will probably be included in the preparedness program to be authorized by congress. The vessels will be of light draft and narrow beam. They are to range from 70 to 75 feet over all, and will be used in the detection and destruction of submarines. Congress will probably be asked to provide at least 70 of these novel engines of war.

DEMANDS EXPLANATION BRITAIN'S FAILURE TO ANSWER U. S. PROTEST

MUST ALSO AT ONCE EXPLAIN THE HALT-ING OF AMERICAN STEAMER, CHINA, BY ENGLISH WAR - VESSEL AND SEIZURE OF 38 PASSENGERS.

(By International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Secretary Lansing today announced that he has demanded an explanation from Great Britain for her delay in responding to the protest submitted by the United States against "the trading with the enemy" act and interference with American mails. Relations of the two governments have reached the crucial point where a definite, amicable and satisfying understanding must at once be reached.

Preparatory to another and sharper protest to England, the state department has directed Consul General Simmons to forward all available information concerning the halting of the American steamer, China, by a British war vessel which took off 38 of her passengers.

It is further stated that all efforts by congress toward retaliatory measures directed against Great Britain have been suspended, pending the outcome of the submarine controversy. Senators who have urged reprisals, this morning said frankly, the situation was entirely too delicate a one for congressional interference. Advocates of embargo are believed to have taken the same view and called off further agitation of the question until some future time.

Secretary Lansing stated that the failure on the part of Great Britain to reply to the protest made by this government is regarded in official circles as a direct affront. The language used in the demand for an explanation is said to be far stronger in style than the context of any message, heretofore.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE MAY BE CALLED TO CONSIDER CHARGES MADE AGAINST JUDGE EDGINGTON

(By International News Service.)

NASHVILLE, Feb. 21.—The governor today threatened to call an extra session of the state legislature to consider the charges of malfeasance in office, made by the Memphis bar against Criminal Court Judge Jesse Edgington, of the same city, unless Edgington resigns before night.

The judge's friends declared today that they understood Edgington had reconsidered his determination to give up his seat on the bench and would undoubtedly fight the case to the bitter finish.

"DAMAGED GOODS" COMING TO CRESCENT THEATRE FOR THREE DAYS THIS WEEK

"Damaged Goods," the drama that upset the country two years ago and became the greatest stage sensation the nation has seen, is to be shown here in motion pictures.

It is announced that this remarkable picture has been booked by the Crescent theatre for a run of three days. The first showing will be given next Thursday.

The motion picture version of "Damaged Goods" is even more remarkable than the speaking stage play. It tells more of the strange inner mysteries of the plot than was possible on the stage.

Most remarkable of all, the same actors who presented this play in its history making run on the speaking stage will be seen in the pictures.

Richard Bennett and his whole cast of co-workers, all actors of prominence on the speaking stage, enacted the play before the cameras of the American Film Company at Santa Barbara. The most painstaking and expensive work was necessary to tell this story on the screen with the force it demanded and yet with the delicacy necessary.

The plot deals with the disease which has been held an unmentionable thing for centuries. But it is related so dramatically, so cleanly and interestingly that it must interest every one and offend none.

The picture was shown before the most critical audience that could be gathered when the Mutual Film Corporation through which it is released gave a private advance screening of "Damaged Goods," at the Broadway theatre in New York. On that occasion 2,000 doctors, lawyers, social workers, men and women, youths and girls among them, saw the picture and sat through it in spellbound silence. Then as the closing sub-title flashed on the screen the audience broke into applause that lasted for five thundering minutes.

The reviewers and critics of hard-hearted New York have been unstinting in their praise of this picture. One of the nation's best known critics of the film drama wrote:

"The mutual version of 'Damaged Goods' is free from the taint which inheres in most of the 'sex problem' plays. It does not parade evil that good may come of it, it does not linger over the horrid and morbid to titillate perverted tastes under the preaching of a great moral lesson.

There is a distinct and powerful dramatic element in the story, a variation of the tragic idea that consequences are unpaying, that the will and virtue of man or woman are assailable on a thousand points and that few of us will emerge scatheless from the conflict with temptation.

"Damaged Goods" is not a problem play catering to the morbid, but a genuine tragedy. As such it surely is entitled to take its place in the film literature of the day."

For the making of this picture a remarkable array of extraordinary facilities were necessary, among them arrangements had to be made to take a large number of scenes in a real hospital. Elaborate settings for the filming of the many and costly interiors were required.

In the scenes which portray the "hero"—if he can be called a hero—as the victim of quack doctors there is a vivid exposure of the methods of the medical swindlers and a powerful argument for the ethical physician.

The picture abounds in human touches, and here and there in spite of the dire tragedy of the plot there are touches of humor.

The story of the play is centered about a young man known to the plot as "George Dupont"—the role taken by Richard Bennett, the star of the speaking stage drama. The action of the picture play shows how this young man, well born, well reared, an honor student at his college, is lured into abandon and lead to spend the night with a woman of the half-world.

Weeks later the terrible consequent wrongdoing by a designing woman of his own social caste.

The pathway to evil is thus broken. Then comes a love affair with a poor girl, interrupted by the plans of a mother and aunt who engage him to the daughter of "Senator Locke." Dupont obligingly falls in love with this girl. His bachelor friend not long before the day set for his marriage give him a farewell dinner. He drinks, at first under protest, and, ultimately with drunken abandon. That same day of his misdeed become evident as Dupont discovers he is a victim of the terrible scourge of "blood taint." He is driven to an attempt at suicide but is rescued by the woman who was his undoing, who in the meantime has been redeemed and has become a nurse. She tells Dupont the terrible story of her life of wrongs and wrong doing and then leads him to a specialist who in turn tells the young man the awful truth. Dupont is shown through a hospital by way of giving him evidence of what the wages of his sin may be.

"If you follow my direction it is reasonably certain that in two years you will be safe," the doctor tells him. In another scene Dupont hears the doctor say "if you marry in less than two years you are a criminal."

But Dupont listens to the oily promises of a quack and believing himself cured in a few weeks is married to Henrietta Locke. A child is born to them. At the time it is apparently sound. But at last after most tragic developments the terrible disease, the sin of the father visited upon his offspring, breaks out and Dupont's wrong doing is exposed.

Senator Locke, the outraged father-in-law, vows to kill Dupont. The closing scene of the picture shows the Senator waiting in Dupont's study, revolver in hand. But off in the Italian garden of the Dupont home the woe-stricken young husband, his home, life and happiness irrevocably wrecked by his misdeed, is seen standing in a pergola at the brink of a cliff overlooking the sea. Does he plunge to his death? The bitter finish is kindly shrouded in mystery.

The picture has a lesson and a truth for everybody. It shows how the most innocent may become victims of the terrible scourge of the sin of others.

"We start the ball rolling, others keep it up," says the last sub-title of the film.

"THE JUGGERNAUT" AT THE CRESCENT MONDAY

Everything we would say about the story of "The Juggernaut" is so pale and poor and thin compared to the tremendous climax of this, the Colossus of railway drama—that we shall give only the outline of the plot, says a prominent reviewer. "The Juggernaut" will be shown at the Crescent Monday.

Two young men—one the brilliant sons of poor parents—the other the dissolute heir of a great railway king, become friends at college.

One thinks he has accidentally killed a drunken rody in saving the other's life—they two only know the secret.

Both fall in love with the same girl—who marries the rich boy only after his chum has withdrawn from the race because of his poverty.

Years after one becomes president of his father's old railroad—the other a righteous fearless district attorney. Both again worship the same girl—daughter of the old sweetheart of both—one with a father's deep affection; the other because she is her mother's counterpart.

The district attorney bitterly attacks the railroad in the courts. His former chum threatens to expose him as a murderer.

And now—imagine the girl on a train approaching a bridge which cannot possibly stand its weight. Both men know this. Both are rushing madly by automobile and motor boat to intercept it.

You see all this. See the girl's sweet face at the window of the flying train—feel the swaying of the automobile as it skids desperately around sharp turns, and the bounding of the motor boat slashing through rough waters.

Both men and the train come crashing into the picture at the same instant—too late!

For a moment that seems an eternity, you feel yourself sitting almost under the tottering trestle as the enormous engine—a mass of whirling steel—leaps thundering and quivering into the empty air and falls shrieking to the swirling river.

The big coaches crumple like cardboard before your eyes and pile themselves up on the wreck—their passengers floundering and struggling in the debris.

Again you see the girl. Again her father—

Again—the man—

The car of Juggernaut rools on. But who are the victims?

Come and see this tremendous spectacle.

That it was Vitagraphed by Ralph W. Ince, under the personal supervision of Albert E. Smith and J. Stuart Blackton, tells the story of quality as a feature film.

"THE DISCIPLE" AT CRYSTAL THEATRE MONDAY

"The Disciple" will be one of the features at the Crystal Monday.

William S. Hart has a powerful and congenial role as the frontier missionary in "The Disciple." The story is that of a strong, pure enthusiast, who is mated to a pretty woman without strength of character. Dorothy Dalton, as the wife, brings out interestingly, the personality of the non-moral shallow creature, who leaves her little girl and virile, worthy husband for the flashy gambler-type of saloon-keeper (Robert McKim). The little daughter is charmingly played by diminutive Thelma Salter. Charles K. French is convincing as the square, courageous Birdshot Bivens, Hart commands and holds attention from the start, when he appears as the ascetic and visionary frontier missionary of Barren Gulch. He is powerful by his restraint, as well as by his facial expressions, when he appears as a man awakening to a bad dream after he hears of his wife's elopement. There is a great climax in the last scene, where the husband compels "Doc" Hardy to accompany him to his cabin at the point of his gun, and another when he is tempted to shoot the violator of his home, but thrusts it aside on seeing the vision of the Crucified.

"Her Painted Hero." Another feature at the Crystal Monday will be "Her Painted Hero."

In "Her Painted Hero," Hale Hamilton, as the star, helps Polly Moran, playing the stage-struck girl, to realize her ambition to shine in the theatrical firmament. Hamilton is the handsome matinee idol, and his indifference to the worshipful attitude of Miss Moran, is heightened by her attempts to win him. As foils to Hamilton are Charles Murray, the property man, and George Summerville, the bill-poster, who are constantly running into and over each other in their wild attempts to win the attention of Polly Moran. Harry Booker, who plays the irate father of Polly, consents to the marriage of Murray and the girl, but she has other plans in view. While arrayed in bridal attire, she suddenly gets the notion to essay stage life and enlists the aid of Hamilton by promising to back a company if she gets the chance to be the leading lady. Her awkwardness is comic. In her excitement, Miss Moran knocks over her companions on the stage and finally gets her dress caught on a hook and is elevated half-way to the roof, while frantically struggling and gesticulating for aid.

MISS YOUNG IN "LOLA" AT THE ARCADE MONDAY

A beautiful play is shown in film-craft at the Arcade theatre Monday, when Clara Kimball Young, the film's star, plays the leading part in "Lola." "The is a Divinity that shapes our ends, rough hew them as we may." The truth of this saying is exemplified in the unfolding of the thrilling story of "Lola." The story of "Lola" is one of the most remarkable that has ever been put on the screen and there is no doubt that on its release it will become a subject of widespread discussion and divergence of opinion. Was Lola really dead? Was her father justified in his scientific experiments? Was Lola to blame or was she but the victim of some inscrutable fate? These are some of the questions that will be asked. Whatever the answers may be, it will be universally conceded that in the adaptation of Owen Davis' play, picturized by James Young, the favorite picture star, Clara Kimball Young has found a vehicle which enables her to give full vent to her unique gift of emotional characterizations and at the same time portray a story of extraordinary interest.

STATE VERMONT SOCIETY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

LARGE CROWD OF VERMONTERS
FROM ALL OVER FLORIDA
SPEND SATURDAY AT THE NAU-TILUS CASINO.

Nearly 250 were present at the annual meeting of the Vermont Society of the state of Florida, which convened Saturday at the Nautilus Casino in Seabreeze. Representatives were present from nearly all of the large towns of the state as well as a large number of Vermont natives who are spending the winter here.

This is the only state organization of its kind in Florida, although there are many local organizations from the other states, which hold yearly meetings in Seabreeze or Daytona Beach.

The assembly was called to order for business meeting which embodied the election of officers and five presidents were elected. A. T. Bigelow was made the president of this branch of the society, while Messrs. Morse, Robinson, Stone and Phillips were elected to fill the office in their respective localities. J. F. Ballard was made secretary, and J. O. Robinson received the office of treasurer.

The program for the afternoon was then opened by a welcome speech by Dr. A. T. Bigelow, of Seabreeze, who told in fitting phrase, how pleased the officers were to see such a large gathering present. H. E. Barker, of Bradford, Vt., replied to this introductory speech in behalf of the visiting Vermonters.

Speeches were made through the remainder of the meeting by visitors and members. M. Leland, president of the Cadillac Motor Company, who is a native of Vermont, is spending the present winter at the Hotel Clarendon, made a delightful talk. Mr. Leland told how he left his native home when he was nine years of age to move to Detroit, Mich., with his parents. He said that he had tried in vain to locate the house of his birth when he went back to Danbury several years ago, but was unable to do so.

Prof. Thomas, of the Middlebury College, who is enjoying a winter in one of the interior towns of the state, addressed the people for a short time, as did Dean Lincoln G. Hulley, of Stetson Academy, DeLand, who is also a native of Vermont. Several other prominent citizens of the state made short addresses.

Music for the day was furnished by Colonel E. P. Woodbury, manager of the Ridgewood hotel, of Daytona, who obligingly brought over the hotel orchestra. Miss Elsa Woodbury, his daughter, favored the assembly with a beautiful flute solo. Mr. Woodbury and family come from Burlington.

J. F. Ballard and Mrs. Manchester, of Ludlow, Vt., sang a duet and some of the old time Vermont political songs, all of which were greatly appreciated by the audience.

The crowd, after setting the place for next year's meeting as Blue Lake, near DeLand, adjourned for the lunches, which were enjoyed by all. Everyone wished to express their thanks to Michael Sholtz for the use of the Nautilus for the occasion.

Judge Nathaniel C. Sears arrived from his home in Chicago, Saturday evening, to spend the next few weeks visiting with his wife and family at the attractive Sear's home on Peninsula Drive and the river front.

An event of February 22 will be a Washington's Birthday dinner dance at the Hotel Clarendon. The hotel will be decorated for the occasion with appropriate decorations suggestive of Washington's birthday. A number of delightful parties are being arranged and the affair promises to be one of the most brilliant of the events by the management of the hotel this season.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Keeney, of Connecticut, have recently arrived to spend the remainder of the winter season on the beach, guests of the Hotel Clarendon. Mr. and Mrs. Keeney are regular winter guests of the Hotel Clarendon. They have a wide circle of friends at the hotel who are always glad to welcome them back.

Prizes will be awarded to the players making low net medal scores in qualifying round, based on handicaps to be fixed by the committee. All desiring to enter the contest is requested to leave their name at the desk.

FRIENDS OF MR. AND MRS. PENSINGER ENJOY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pensinger entertained a number of their friends at their home on Halifax avenue, Friday evening. The guests played bridge and five hundred until a late hour, at the tables attractively arranged in the living room of the cozy Pensinger dwelling.

Miss Susie Alberson received the first prize, a beautiful pair of silk hose, for skill in bridge whist when scores were compared at the close of the games, and second prize, an embroidered guest towel, was awarded to Mrs. I. W. Ramsey. At the 500 tables, Mrs. Baldwin was the fortunate winner of another guest towel.

During the course of the evening the guests were served tastefully prepared sandwiches, cake, candy, coffee and peanuts, by the hostess.

C. L. Horn has returned to his farm in Dupont after coming home to the beach for a few days. Mr. Horn is making a great many improvements on his Dupont land, and is now installing an up-to-date system of irrigation. MARTHA WASHINGTON TEA

The Ladies' Aid of the Daytona Beach Methodist church will hold a Martha Washington Tea in the church basement Tuesday night. All of the ladies are asked to come in costume, but are not required to do so. All are welcome whether masked or not.

Tasteful refreshments will be served by "ye ladies of olden time," and a pleasant evening is promised to all who attend.

SMALL FIRE CALLS OUT TWO FIRE DEPARTMENTS

BOTH FIRE DEPARTMENTS RESPOND PROMPTLY TO CALL TO WHARTON HOME ON HALIFAX AVENUE.

Saturday afternoon about quarter of five, an alarm of fire was sent in to the Daytona Beach garage and the members of the Daytona Beach department, after blowing the whistle for a general alarm, hastened to the Wm. R. Wharton cottage near the school house on Halifax avenue, where a defective flue had fired the framework and roof of the building around the chimney.

A few hundred feet of hose were laid to the nearest hydrant and, with some fast work on the part of both Seabreeze and Daytona Beach firemen, the blaze in the roof was extinguished. The interior of the house was a little damaged by water and a large hole was burned in the roof. The total loss will not exceed $250.

A continual hot fire in the stove has caused two small blazes in the last three days.

THREE BOAT LOADS GO ON TOMOKA TRIP

About three hundred and fifty people went up the Tomoka this morning on the excursion given by the Tourist Class of the Daytona Beach Methodist church. This trip is the third number of the course of entertainments and was postponed from last Monday on account of the coldness of the weather.

The first boat left with 135 people on board about 8:15 o'clock. The second and third boats, carrying large loads, started about fifteen minutes later. All had basket lunches, on which to feast after the long ride of the morning.

Part of the excursionists planned to stop at Addison's Landing to spend the morning and early afternoon hours, while the others made the trip to the second cabin.

The boats are expected to return about five o'clock this afternoon after a delightful day on the water. In the morning, everything gave promise of pleasant weather.

Two excursion boats, the Seminole and Southland, were chartered from Captain Nutting, of Daytona, and the third boat, the Seabreeze, was given for the day by its owner, J. N. Gamble.

SEASIDE INN GUESTS HAVE SUNDAY MUSICALS

TENDERED PLEASANT SURPRISE ON HER BIRTH ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Cecil I. McDonald was tendered a very pleasant surprise Saturday afternoon by Mr. McDonald's mother, Mrs. C. M. McDonald, at their home on South Beach street in honor of her 18th birthday anniversary. There were 21 of the most intimate friends of Mrs. McDonald present, and a delightful social time was enjoyed with music on the Victrola, and pleasant social converse, followed by the enjoyment of a delicious fruit punch and appetizing refreshments. The center of the dining table was occupied by a handsome birthday cake, ornamented with 18 colored candles in designation of the age of the guest of honor. The affair was a complete surprise to Mrs. McDonald, who is a bride of a few weeks, and was a very pleasant event for all participating.

Every winter day is summer in Daytona.

THE WEATHER

FOR FLORIDA—Fair tonight and Tuesday; temperature to remain about the same; winds, light, variable.

Optimist Department. Devoted to Cheering Up "The Land of Sunshine."

Now, citizens, visitors and people from Missouri, what complaint have you got against the weather man? Sunshine today, tomorrow and forever afterward. Nevertheless, you'll find some poor, belated mortal that will kick because there isn't any sunshine predicted for tonight. Let me suggest, that that same mortal go out and get next to some moonshine (either kind). It'll do him good!

The following is quoted with apologies to Dyer. No doubt but what he would have finished up the verse in this way had he been blessed with a visit to Daytona:

"And he that will his health deny,
Among the dead men let him lie;"

For he could find a life sublime,
Beneath the sun of southern clime.

But we digress. We were speaking of moonshine. There is a lot of trouble in this world. Some of it comes from gas stoves, the taxes, mother-in-laws, and liquor laws, rain storms, brainstorms and politics. The rest of it comes from "moon madness." All those young enough to profit by the advice of the following, better throw away their gum and chew on this:

THE MADNESS OF THE MOON.

There's sunlight on this funny ball;
There's lamp light for the night;
But lovers answer lovers' call,
When moonlight's shining bright.

It is a fact we all discuss,
That humans marry soon;
If they admit, like most of us,
The madness of the moon.

Divorces, frowns and peeverishness,
And all domestic gloom,
Are caused by nothing, more nor less,
Than madness of the moon.

Teething babies worrisome,
That trouble bride and groom—
When kiddies come we know they're from
The madness of the moon.

—THE WEATHER MAN,
By Eugene Jones.

ington, D. C., and occupy her home for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Ida Smith, who had been the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith at their apartments in the McCrory building on South Beach street, returned today to her home in Jacksonville. Mrs. Smith had never before visited Daytona, although she had been a resident of Jacksonville for a number of years. She was surprised and delighted with this city, and promises to come again in the near future for a longer stay. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Smith and their guest motored to DeLeon Springs in the morning, enjoyed a picnic dinner and returned in the afternoon.

Mushroom Hunting Dangers.

The advantage of rattlesnake hunting over mushroom hunting seems to be that you know the snake is poisonous. As near as can be made out there seems to be one sure way of telling the character of your find, and that was described by a foreigner who asked if gathering mushrooms was not risky: "All right, most every day, Bimeby somebody die, then we not eat for a week."

GENERAL PASSENGER AGENT OF SOUTHERN VISITS DAYTONA

SPEAKS IN GLOWING TERMS OF DAYTONA AS A POPULAR RESORT—WAS ONE TIME LOCATED IN JACKSONVILLE.

H. F. Cary, of Washington, D. C., general passenger agent of the Southern railway, accompanied by G. R. Pettit, division passenger agent of the same system, with headquarters in Jacksonville, were Daytona visitors today, and were shown about the city by H. H. Little, traveling passenger agent, who is at present making his headquarters in this city.

Mr. Cary noted the many improvements in Daytona since his last visit and spoke in glowing terms of the popularity of the city as a winter resort. A few years ago Mr. Cary was district passenger agent of the Southern at Jacksonville, but he had gradually climbed up the ladder of success until he has become the guiding hand of the passenger department of one of the greatest railroad systems of the country.

Mr. Cary and Mr. Pettit left this afternoon on the Palm Beach Limited for Palm Beach.

STORK VISITS KLOCK'S SANITORIUM TODAY

A splendid 8-pound bouncing baby boy was born at Dr. Klock's hospital about 11 o'clock this morning, the parents being Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Weston, prominent New Englanders from the state of Maine. Both Mrs. Weston and son are reported doing well.

Handkerchief Newspapers.
Pocket handkerchief newspapers were issued in England in the early part of the last century while journals were subject to the stamp duty. The editor of one of them, Bertholds Political Handkerchief, suggested that after six months' wear, if the ink washed out, he would buy the handkerchiefs back again from his readers. The price of this novel newspaper was fourpence.

A literary and musical program was carried out, assisted by Mr. de L'Isle, vocally and upon the piano, who is a most talented and finished organist and pianist, with a most pleasing baritone voice.

ENTERTAINED AT RIDGWOOD HOTEL

One of the most elaborate dinner parties of the season was given last Friday evening at the Ridgewood hotel by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Drake. This was in the nature of a reunion of their Ridgewood hotel friends. Covers were laid for twenty-four guests.

The table decorations were most beautiful and artistically arranged by Mrs. E. P. Woodbury. The color scheme was yellow and white. A central floral feature composed of yellow narcissus and asparagus ferns extended nearly the entire length of the table. This was surrounded by small vases of jessamine connected by a chain of yellow gauze ribbon. Favors for the ladies were bouquets of white sweet peas, mignonettes and asparagus ferns. There were boutonnières of the same for the gentlemen. Miniature canary birds held the place cards.

A most delicious and efficiently served dinner of ten courses was greatly enjoyed.

Mooers, of Attleboro, Mass.; the second by Mrs. George D. Post, of New Haven, Conn., and the third by Mrs. Arthur N. Tins, of Athens-on-the-Hudson, N. Y. CALIFORNIA WINTER IS THE WORST IN PAST THIRTY YEARS

Mrs. H. W. Palmer, of Englewood, N. J., who has spent a number of seasons in this city and at Holly Hill, where she still owns property, is spending the winter in California, and is evidently regretting that she did not come to Florida as usual. In writing to friends at Holly Hill from Los Angeles, February 11th, Mrs. Palmer says:

"I have been thinking of you all in Florida very often this winter. I came west to the exposition last fall and thought I would try a winter here, but it has been the worst in 30 years, they say."

Mrs. Palmer asks to be remembered to friends here. It is unfortunate that she selected the present season for a comparison of the California and Florida climates, as she missed one of the finest winters Florida has had in years, and apparently found the reverse condition in California. And then it may not be so unfortunate, after all, for she and others are trying California this winter may be better satisfied in future with what Florida has to offer in the way of winter climate.

To Be Lived Through.
Life has been good to me, and as I look back upon it no one thing seems more precious than the thought that I have been much trusted with deep things in the lives of other men things for one's self (we learn by and to know a human soul and ask noth-

THE WAY TO HEAVEN BLOCKED BY GAMBLERS

THE AUTHORITIES INVITE SE-LECT TRIO TO APPEAR AT THE CITY HALL AND TELL THEM
ALL ABOUT THE GAME.

Policeman Taylor made a startling, if not original, discovery Sunday at church time, when he noted a dense dark crowd blocking the Midway thoroughfare, preventing ready passage to the way to heaven.

Upon further investigation he ascertained the fact that a large, well attended crap game was in progress.
Now it is one thing to shoot crap in a quiet, gentlemanly way behind one's house or in one's barn or woodshed, but to boldly open a public gambling hall in the middle of the busy thoroughfare, such as Midway's main street, is a crime in the eyes of the law, humanity and justice. Taylor thought so, too.

Well, the officer quietly joined the group and advised the crap shooters to cease. They ceased! But that is not all. No, all wild deeds bring wild insults. This morning three of the gamblers dropped down to the city hall under the personal guidance of Taylor. Not that they failed to know the way to the city hall; there is every reason to think they were more or less intimately acquainted with it, but the policeman thought so much of the trio, he wished to be certain of their appearance.

Now here is the disappointing fact in connection with the whole matter:
Because of some legal complications, the case was postponed and will be tried tomorrow. So the excited citizens of this city must wait as patiently as possible for the sequel of the story.

MILLIGAN APPOINTED CLERK AND COLLECTOR

CITY COMMISSIONERS FIX REGU-LAR MEETING DATES AS SEC-OND AND FOURTH MONDAYS AT 3 O'CLOCK IN THE AFTERNOON.

The city commissioners have already commenced enacting law, the first ordinance being passed Saturday afternoon. One ordinance provides for the appointment of A. Milligan as deputy clerk and deputy collector, at a salary of $1,200.00 per annum, or $100 per month. Mr. Milligan was appointed deputy clerk and collector for the reason that the ordinances must be changed before a permanent appointment can be made. At present, Commissioner Porter is clerk and collector. It is the intention of the commissioners to make the appointment of Mr. Milligan permanent.

Another ordinance passed by the commissioners Saturday fixes the meeting time of the commission as the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Original Forms of Life.
It is believed that the original forms of life began in the ocean many million years ago, and at no time since has life there ceased. Many of the earliest forms are now extinct; others have gradually increased in number and variety from their beginning to the present time. How long ago life began no one has definitely determined, but it is known to have been many million years ago for the remains of extinct animals and plants are found in the oldest sedimentary rocks.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—It is reported that the northeastern section of the country is shivering today beneath the icy fingers of a cold wave of tremendous dimensions. GERMAN MACHINES RETURN SAFELY AFTER ENGLISH RAID

BERLIN, Feb. 21.—It is reported here that all the German aeroplanes that took part in the raid over England last Sunday returned safely to their base. COMMODORE'S TEAM WALLOPS DELAND BOYS

Commodore Burgoyne reported to the News office this evening that the boys' basketball team, which he took to DeLand Saturday, "walloped" up the DeLand boys by a score of 22 to 11. Commodore Burgoyne was host to the basketball team of the Sixth grade of the Daytona public school Saturday, carrying this bunch of warriors over to DeLand in his automobile for the purpose of meeting an aggregation of the DeLand's eighth grade. A special luncheon was served at the College Arms at DeLand and subsequently the great game was on which resulted in the Commodore's team "walloping" the boys of DeLand. Naturally, Commodore Burgoyne was immensely pleased that his team won.

RETURNED FROM VISIT IN ST. AUGUSTINE AND JACKSONVILLE
C. O. Chamberlin is again at the Despland hotel, after a pleasant visit of a week with friends in St. Augustine and Jacksonville, having returned Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Clark, of Jacksonville, who were on their way to Miami in their car. Mr. Chamberlin spent several days at the Alcazar in St. Augustine, according to his annual custom, and while in Jacksonville attending the banquet given by the Bell Telephone company at the Windsor hotel at which 500 guests were present. The affair was in celebration of the establishment of the Trans-Atlantic telephone service, and each guest was provided with a telephone at his place at the table, putting him in communication with San Francisco, Cal. Communications over the phone from the California city were accompanied by illustrations portraying the subject, and Mr. Chamberlin says the roll of the surf on the Pacific shore could be distinctly heard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brechwaldt and son, Julius, of Dulgeville, N. Y., are visiting Mr. Brechwaldt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Brechwaldt, who are located for the season in the Hilary bungalow on Third avenue. They expect to remain until April.

THE DESPLAND TENNIS TOURNAMENT OPENED BY EXCITING MATCHES

Hotel Despland tennis tournament opened this morning with a list of entries that promise to go down in sporting history of Daytona. Manager Waite has improved the court and put it in A-1 condition for the matches which will be played off as rapidly as possible in the next few days.

This morning's play consisted of the following: Fitter met and defeated Olcott two straight sets, with a score of 6-1 and 6-4. Craig measured some fast work successfully against Doctor Howe, who put up a stiff fight with a resulting score of 6-3, 5-7 and 7-5.

One match of ladies' singles was played off. Miss Richardson defeated Miss Beecher, of the Ridgewood hotel, two straight sets, 6-1 and 6-3. Manager Waite announces that the doubles will start probably tomorrow. A large number of guests from the Ormond hotel are expected to spend the day in Daytona at the Despland court, many of whom have already signed the entry list. The singles matches will continue this afternoon.

COLBY, CARTOONIST.

Mr. Colby, the cartoonist, in appearance is almost the living image of the immortal Bill Nye. As he talks to his audience he transfers a variety of conceptions from his imaginative brain to the concrete form of crayon pictures. Some of his pictures are amusing; some, such as his landscape scenes, are as beautiful as paintings. Many corridors and classrooms in public school buildings in Chicago are ornamented with large crayon pictures that are souvenirs of George E. Colby's popular entertainment "New Ideas in Crayon." The Chicago Tribune in speaking of Colby says that he is remarkable for combining in his treatment strength, sentiment, delicacy and a nameless charm. The Chicago News says, "Mr. Colby's talks are full of surprises, and one marvels at the sudden appearance of pictures both beautiful and comic as they come out of a mass of color and lines." The most effective transformation that is attempted by Mr. Colby is that embodying the rising of Mount Vesuvius from slumber to rage. He draws in colors of crayon illustrations of the famous mountain as viewed across the beautiful bay of Naples. The artist darkens the sky with a sudden brush of black smoke from the crater. This addition to the scene is quickly followed by the issuance of a stream of fire and lava, which pours over the bowl of the crater and down the mountain side. The picture is rapidly altered to display volcanic fire lighting up a cloudy sky and being reflected in the waters of the bay.

This beautiful Coquina rock house is offered for sale. It has three bed rooms, sleeping porch and bath room up stairs; living-room, dining-room, kitchen and screened breakfast-room on first floor. It is located on South Palmetto avenue, in a most desirable neighborhood, and the lot is large enough to add a garage. The owner needs a larger house, and will sell at a most reasonable price.
